

Transfers from Providenciales International Airport to COMO Parrot Cay
(for Private Airline Passengers)

1. Provo Air Center, our preferred service partner, can provide discreet airport transfer services which will include pick up from your plane, a fast tracked immigration process and access to private lounges (including a special children's lounge). Please speak to our Guest Services before you travel to arrange a personalised service package with this air centre.
2. Once you have passed through the customs and immigration hall, we will organise a private car transfer from the airport to our marina. This will take approximately 15 minutes.
3. We will organise a private boat transfer from our marina to COMO Parrot Cay. This will take approximately 35 minutes.
4. When you reach the island you will be taken to your accommodation in one of our electric buggies.

Please make us aware of your departure and arrival times at this airport at least three days before your stay so that we can arrange your personalised transfer to COMO Parrot Cay.
