

A BHUTAN ANNIVERSARY BLESSING WITH COMO

With the towering Himalayas as your backdrop, mark your anniversary with a Bhutanese blessing while staying at one of two hotels in the kingdom: COMO Uma Paro, within striking distance of the country's great cultural landmarks, and COMO Uma Punakha, which overlooks a snake-like bend in the Mo Chu river a five-hour drive from the airport, deep into the Himalayan hinterland.

You will be taken to a Buddhist temple's intimate shrine room dressed in the traditional attire of Bhutan – a gho for men, a kira for women – for the two-hour ceremony. Monks will chant, accompanied by drums, horns and cymbals, and your relationship will be blessed as a long, happy and prosperous union. The exchange of khadhar (white scarves) is an important Bhutanese act, representing devotion and love.

In the evening, our chefs will serve a romantic four-course dinner complete with a bottle of house wine. At COMO Uma Paro, guests may enjoy this meal by the firelight in the woods or in the courtyard. At COMO Uma Punakha, you can choose to eat al fresco overlooking the river or in front of the fire in Bukhari restaurant.
