

COMO Cocoa Island Strengthens Leadership with Appointment of Resort Manager Arta Rozefelde

Maldives – January 2025 COMO Cocoa Island is delighted to announce the appointment of Arta Rozefelde as its new Resort Manager, effective January 9th 2025.

Rozefelde brings over 25 years of experience in the hospitality industry, including leadership positions at exclusive private islands in the Philippines and the Seychelles, as well as cruise lines. She is no stranger to Maldives, where she held management roles in several luxury hotels.

Arta's deep understanding of remote luxury destinations and her passion for creating exceptional guest journeys align seamlessly with COMO Cocoa Island's ethos. Her expertise encompasses front office operations, sales, and team leadership, with a focus on creating guest-centric experiences, achieving operational excellence, and implementing rigorous quality standards.

In her role, Rozefelde will oversee all aspects of the resort's management and operations, driving excellence across departments and ensuring exceptional guest experiences that reflect COMO's signature approach to luxury hospitality.

Peter Nilsson, Managing Director for COMO Hotels and Resorts in the Maldives, commented: "We are thrilled to welcome Arta Rozefelde to COMO Cocoa Island. Arta's extensive expertise in luxury hospitality, combined with her leadership and commitment to excellence, will enhance the resort's legacy as a serene and intimate escape for our guests."

COMO Cocoa Island is an intimate resort located in South Malé Atoll, featuring 33 overwater villas designed to offer unparalleled relaxation and personalised experiences for discerning travellers.
